

Virginia Tech CoDeS (Cognitive Developmental Science) Lab

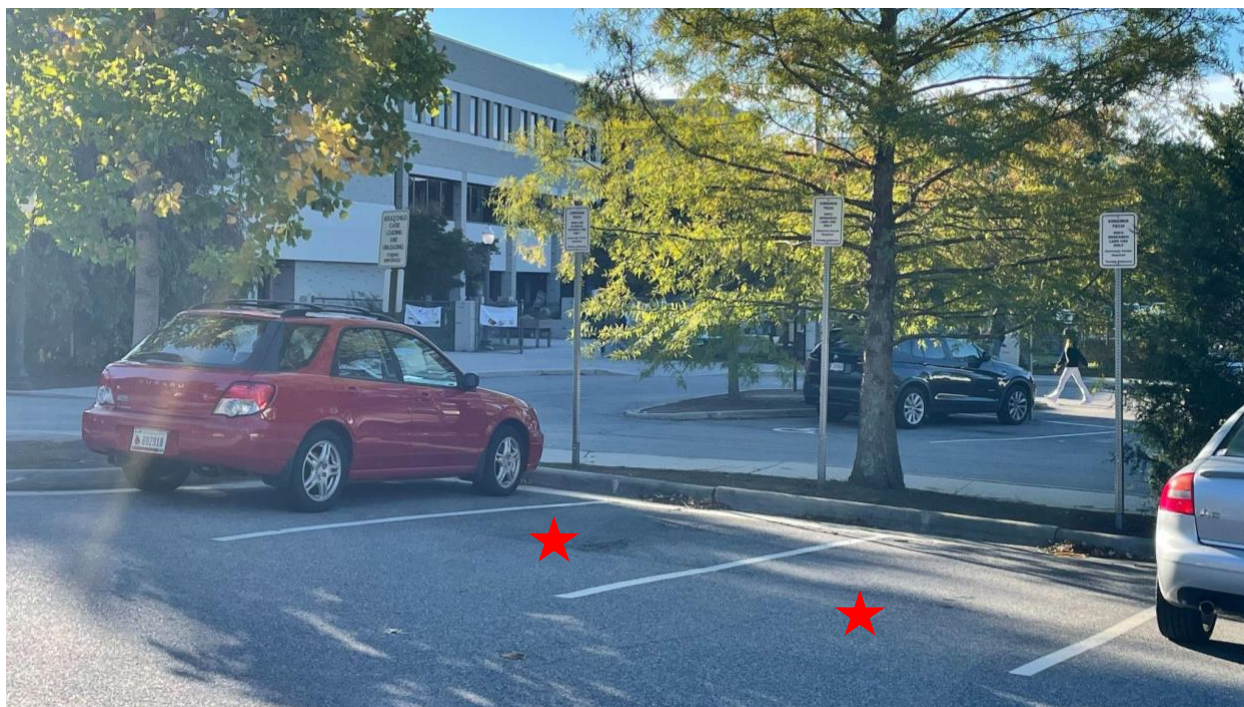

Parking Information

Above is the GPS image of the parking location as well as the lab. The Google Map location can be found here.

Above is an image of where you will park. The two parking spots will face a line of trees, and you should be able to see the on-campus preschool. There will be parking signs indicating the two HDFS designated spots (labeled with stars in this photo), which have signs indicating “VIRGINIA TECH HDFS RESEARCH LABS USE ONLY.”

Above is another image of where you will park, taken from the other direction. The two HDFS designated spots are labeled with stars in this photo, which each have signs indicating “VIRGINIA TECH HDFS RESEARCH LABS USE ONLY.” A research assistant will be outside to greet you in that parking lot area when you arrive. They will provide a parking pass for you to display on your dashboard. The building you see is the Wallace Hall which is where our lab is located.

General Directions:

1. If using GPS, Use “Hillcrest Ext Lot” as the destination.
2. The parking Lot will be labeled F/S (Faculty and Staff).
3. There will be two designated spots with a sign that says “VIRGINIA TECH HDFS RESEARCH LABS USE ONLY”.
4. A research assistant will meet you in the parking lot with a parking pass to display on your dashboard.
5. From there, the research assistant will walk you inside.
